

IN THE UNITED STATES PATENT & TRADEMARK OFFICE
AMENDMENT

Page 9,

In CLAIMS:

A marked-up version of Claim 5.

(Amended) A method for manufacturing a an embroidery decorated card ~~with;~~ with :

1) a card stock, which is cut into a shape comprised of three portions of rectangular forms of a same size connected in series, ~~the~~ a first portion of the card stock has a window of ~~various shape punctured~~ punctured at the a center and has three wings of shallow trapezoid shape, ~~on which peel off glues are attached, are developed on the three edges, which are developed along the three edges,~~ and one portion of distorted trapezoid form, ~~whose maximum height is half of that of the rectangular form,~~ connected serially to the a third portion of rectangular form the rectangular forms, having a shallow trapezoid shape, ~~on which a peel off glue is attached,~~ wing, 2) an embroidery, made with various threads of different ~~color,~~ colors and decorated fabric, and 3) six pieces of peel off ~~glues by~~ gules, three of them are attached on the three wings of the first portion of the card stock and the other three are attached on the wing of the distorted trapezoid portion, behind the window of the first portion of the card stock, and inside of the second portion of the card stock respectively, by following steps of; a) ~~fold~~ fold the three wings on the first portion of the card stock, ~~on which peel off glues are adhered,~~ backward to let the three wings face the rear face of the a second portion of the card stock, b) ~~fold~~ fold the wing, ~~on which peel off glue is attached, on the fourth portion of the card stock,~~ which is developed on the distorted trapezoid formed portion, backward to let the wing face surface, on which glue is pasted, adheres to the third portion of the card stock, c) adhere a peel off glue, having a window at the a center matching to the window on the first portion of the card stock, to the rear face of the first portion of the card stock, d) adhere another peel off glue to the second portion of the card stock, e) take off the ~~peels~~ a peel from the peel off glues, f) place the embroidered fabrics e mbroidery, facing the window on the first portion of the card stock, on the glue on the second portion of the card stock, g) fold the first portion and ~~second~~ portions the second portion of the card stock ~~{face}~~ to face each other, and ~~third~~ and ~~fourth portion~~ fold the third and the distorted trapezoid portions of the card stock ~~face~~ to face each other, and h) slightly press ~~{the folded card}~~ the card, finally formed in step g), with hands.

IN THE UNITED STATES PATENT & TRADEMARK OFFICE
DELETION

Page 9,

In CLAIMS:

(DELETED) 6. A method for manufacturing a embroidery decorated post card with;
1) a card stock, which is cut into a shape comprised of two portions of rectangular forms of a same size connected in series, the first portion of the card stock has a window of various shape punctured at the center and has three wings of shallow trapezoid shape, on which peel off glues are attached, are developed on the three edges, 2) an embroidery, made with various threads of different color, decorated fabric, and 3) five pieces of peel off glues by; a) folding the three wings on the first portion of the card stock, on which peel off glues are adhered, backward to let the three wings face the rear face of the second portion of the card stock, b) adhere a peel off glue, having a window at the center matching to the window on the first portion of the card stock, to the rear face of the first portion of the card stock, c) adhere another peel off glue to the second portion of the card stock, d) take off the peels from the peel off glues, e) place the embroidered fabrics, facing the window on the first portion of the card stock, on the glue on the second portion of the card stock, f) fold the first portion and second portions of the card stock face each other, and g) slightly press the folded card with hands.

IN THE UNITED STATES PATENT & TRADEMARK OFFICE
DELETION

Page 9,

In CLAIMS:

~~(Deleted) 7. A method for manufacturing a embroidery decorated envelope with;~~
~~1) an envelope stock, which is cut into a shape comprised of two portions of rectangular forms of a same size connected in series, the first portion of the envelop stock has a window of various shape punctured at the corner and has two wings of shallow trapezoid shape, on which peel off glues are attached, are developed on the two opposite edges and has a rounded shallow rectangular wing, 2) an embroidery, made with various threads of different color, decorated fabric, and 3) three pieces of peel off glues by; a) folding the two wings on the first portion of the envelope stock, on which peel off glues are adhered, backward to let the two wings face the rear face of the second portion of the envelope stock, b) adhere a peel off glue, having a window at the center matching to the window on the first portion of the envelope stock, to the corner of the rear face of the first portion of the envelope stock, c) take off the peels from the peel off glues, d) place the embroidered fabrics, facing the window on the first portion of the envelope stock, on the glue on the rear face of the first portion of the envelope stock, e) fold the first portion and second portions of the envelope stock face each other, and g) slightly press the folded envelope with hands.~~

IN THE UNITED STATES PATENT & TRADEMARK OFFICE
ANNOTATION OF DRAWINGS

IN DRAWINGS:

Fig. 6. Numerical '63' indicates "wings".

Numerical '63-1' indicates "peel off glue stickers with glue".

Replacement Sheet Annotated Marked-up Drawings

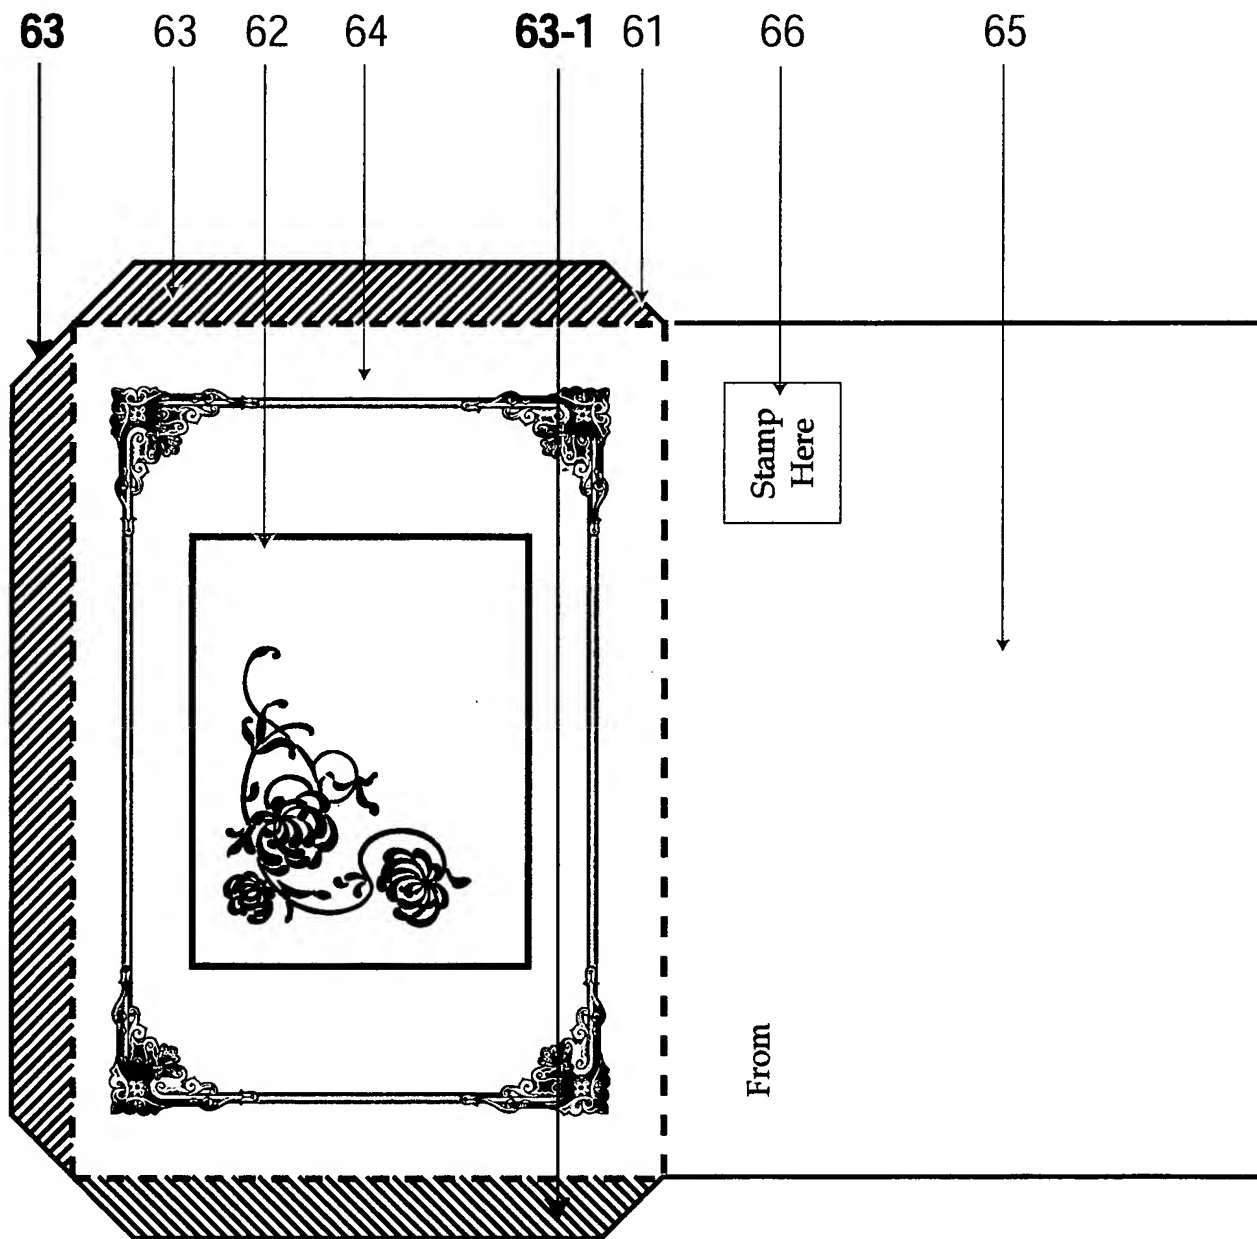

Fig.-6

IN THE UNITED STATES PATENT & TRADEMARK OFFICE
ANNOTATION OF DRAWINGS

IN DRAWINGS:

Fig. 7. Numerical '72' indicates "the rear face of the frame layer".

Replacement Sheet Annotated Marked-up Drawings

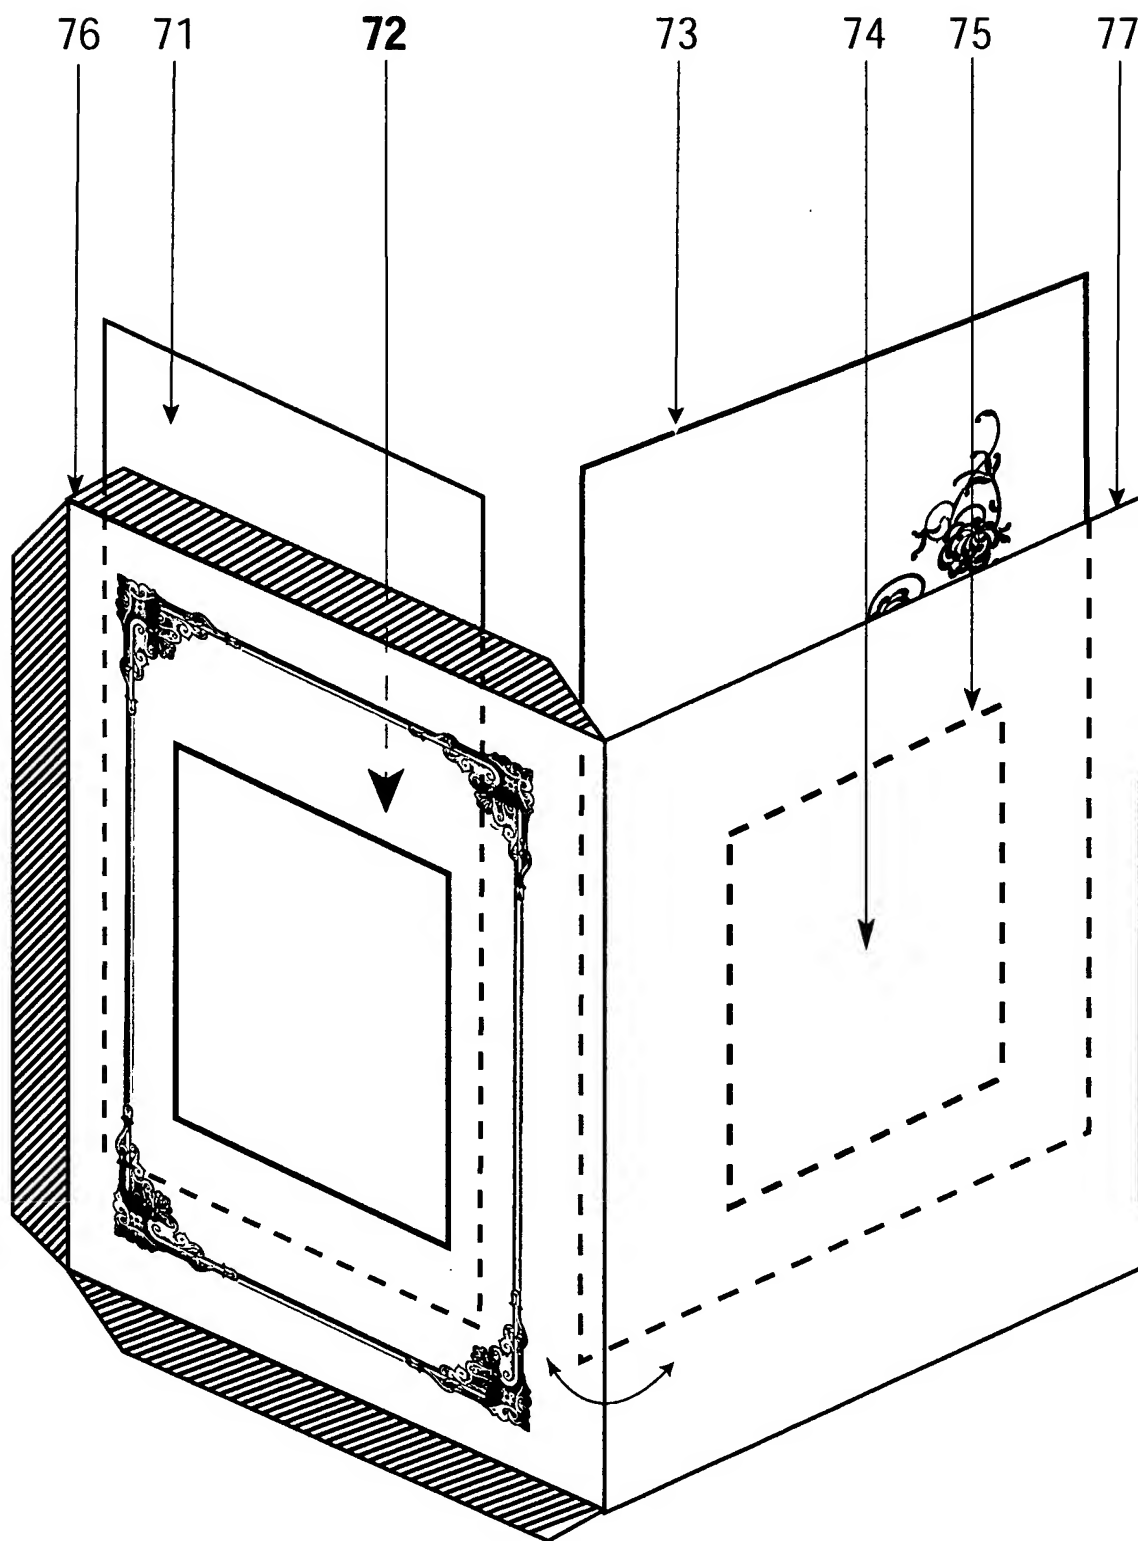

Fig.-7

IN THE UNITED STATES PATENT & TRADEMARK OFFICE
ANNOTATION OF DRAWINGS

IN DRAWINGS:

Fig. 9. Numerical '94' indicates "the wings".

Replacement Sheet Annotated Marked-up Drawings

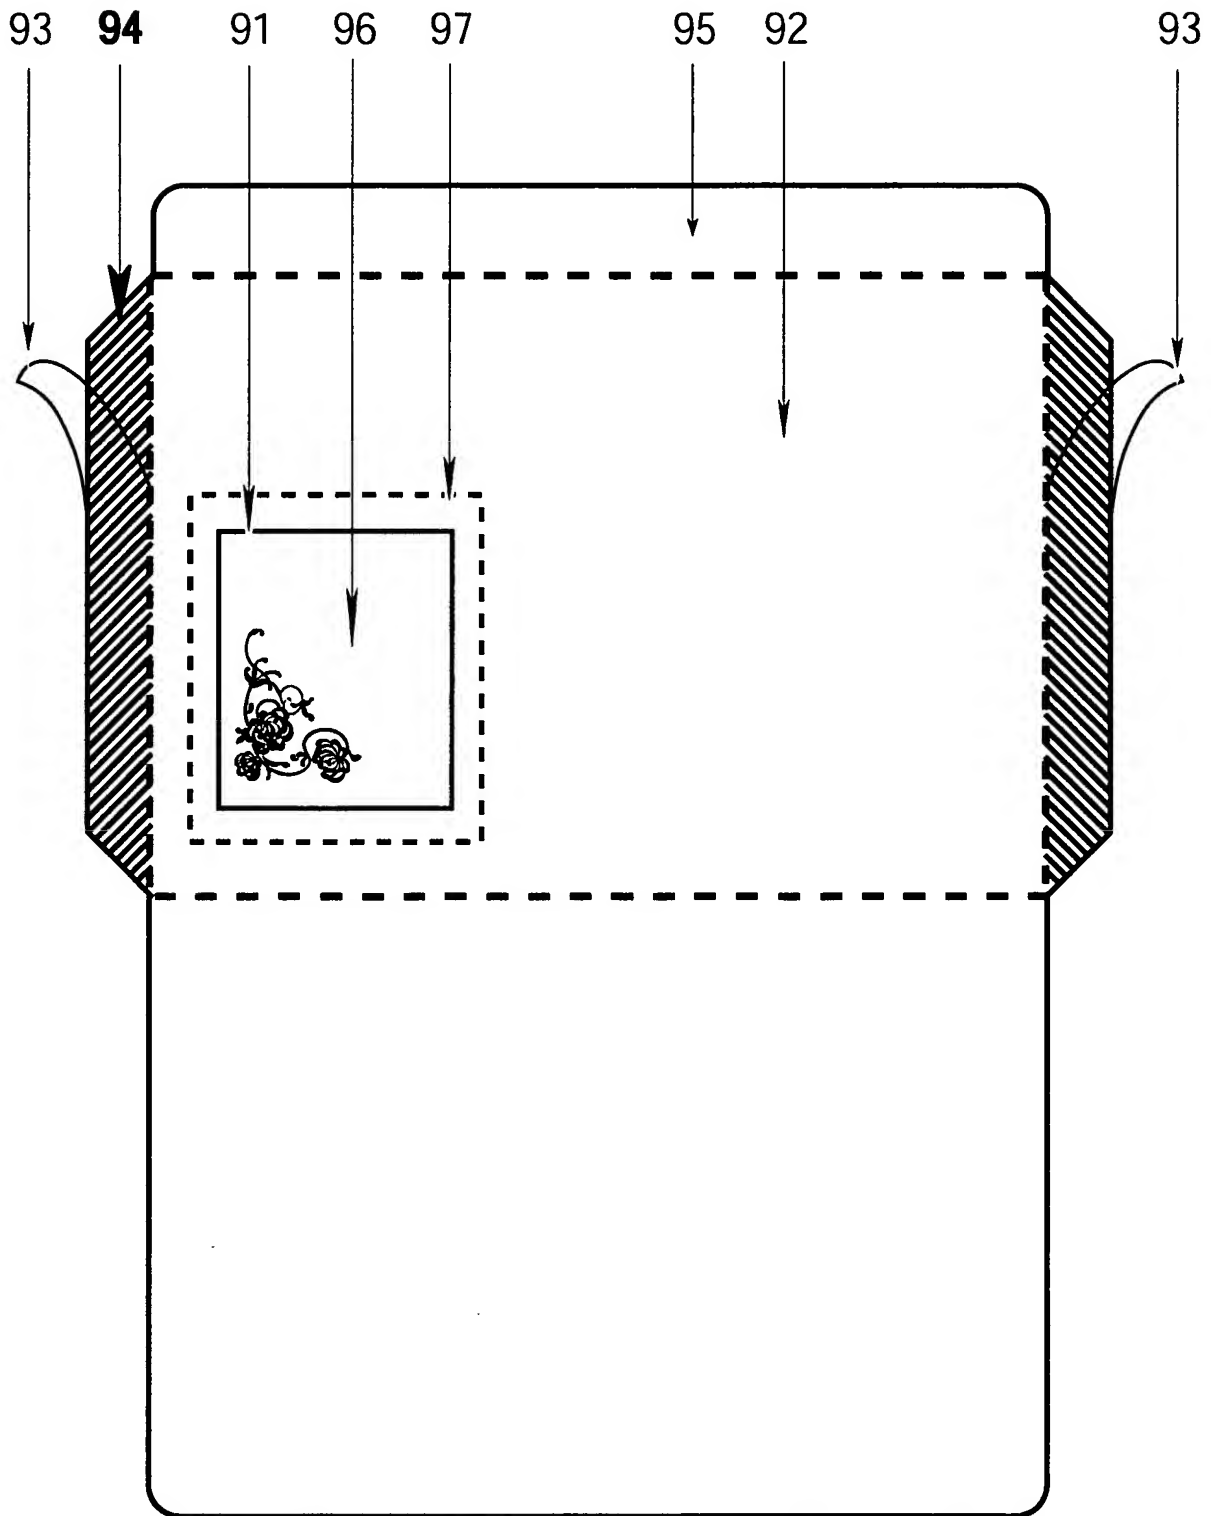

Fig.-9

IN THE UNITED STATES PATENT & TRADEMARK OFFICE
ANNOTATION OF DRAWINGS

IN DRAWINGS:

Fig. 10. Numerical '96' indicates "embroidery decorated fabric".

Replacement Sheet Annotated Marked-up Drawings

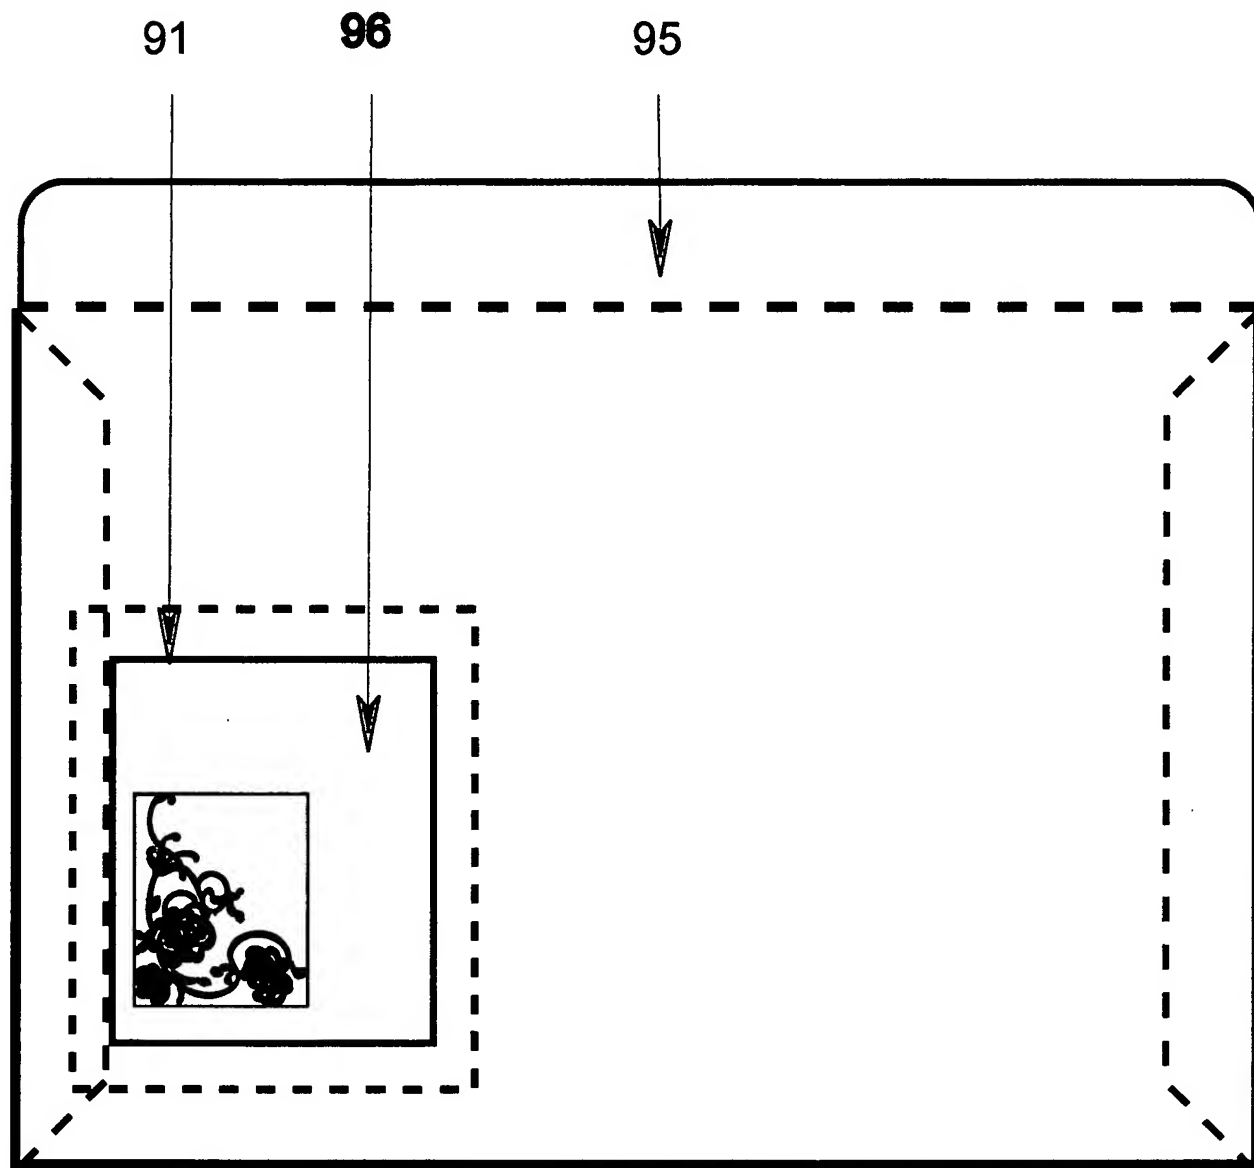

Fig.-10